Château Shatto (FR3)

The London-based artist Zeinab Saleh makes dreamy, loosely structured drawings and paintings based on VHS home videos. In one, a round form on a pedestal might be a cake or a lavish round bed; in another, a ghostly snake slithers toward a woman's face in a hand mirror. What's most striking is the work's moody range of colors, from the cloying blue of cigarette smoke to smoggy green. (W.H.)
